Q9. Summary

	Cathedrals are important symbols of identity in their community	Cathedrals belong to the whole community, not just the Church of England	Cathedrals are unimportant for cities in England today	I would go to a cathedral for spiritual support	Cathedrals are venues for significant events in the life of cities and the country	When visiting an English city, I usually go into its cathedral	I would go to a cathedral but only for a cultural event	I would go to a cathedral to learn more about the Christian faith	Cathedrals are just for people of Christian faith and not for people of other faiths or no faith	I find cathedrals dark and gloomy	I would go to a cathedral for its history and architecture, not for any religious or spiritual experience
